SECTION THREE – AIF FUND

The Fire Brigades Union recognises that members are often placed at risk of injury or illness that may render them unable to perform full fire service duties, and therefore impact on their income. The Accident and Injury Fund is a mutual fund, maintained by members contributions, that was established to pay benefits to members who may be in need of financial assistance. APPLICANTS ARE STRONGLY ADVISED TO JOIN.

I wish to become a member of the AIF

Currently I do not wish to become a member of the AIF

Have you ever been a member of the FBU Accident and Injury Fund? Yes No

NOMINATIONS: The law allows a certain amount of Union Member death benefit to be paid out to nominated persons (over the age of 16) immediately following the member's death. The remainder of the benefit is paid (in accordance with Will or Intestacy rules) when probate, or equivalent, has been granted. Please note that marriage revokes all nominations. It is advisable to periodically review the nominations to account for changes in circumstances.

I hereby nominate the following persons to receive death benefits as allowed by law:

I am, or have applied to be, an Ordinary member of the Fire Brigades Union, and wish to become a member of the Accident and Injury Fund. I understand that it is my responsibility to be familiar with the FBU Rule(s) that govern(s) the Fund.

SECTION FOUR – POLITICAL FUND/DECLARATION

The FBU's political fund enables the FBU to campaign on workplace issues including union and employment rights, pay and pensions, improved health and safety legislation and the defence of public services.

Do you wish to contribute to our political fund? Yes No

If Yes, do you wish to contribute to the Political Levy? Please tick one of the boxes shown below.

Political Levy (Inc. Affiliation) Political Levy (No Affiliation)

I hereby give notice that I am willing and agree to contribute to the political fund of the Fire Brigades Union in accordance with Section 11 of the Trade Union Act 2016. I understand that I shall in consequence, be liable to that Fund and shall continue to be so liable unless I give notice of withdrawal by delivery to Head Office or a Branch Office of the union. I understand that my withdrawal notice takes effect at the end of the period of one month beginning with the day on which it is given.

SECTION FIVE – USING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

The Fire Brigades Union uses the information you provide on this membership application form to comply with our rule book and to provide you with the benefits and services of membership. We use the information to organise and carry out our activities as a trade union. For more information read the privacy statement for members www.fbu.org.uk/privacy

The Fire Brigades Union's data protection officer can be contacted at DPO@fbu.org.uk for further information or to raise any concerns.

Firefighter magazine

This magazine gives you news and information that might affect you as a member. If you decide you do not want Firefighter magazine we will not send it to you. It will not affect your membership but you might find it more difficult to know what is going on.

Rollcall (electronic magazine)

This is another way of getting news and information of interest to firefighters. If you decide you do not want Rollcall we will not send it to you. It will not affect your membership but you might find it more difficult to know what is going on.

Third party marketing

Agreeing to third party marketing allows the Fire Brigades Union to provide your name and address to third parties who will mail you with information about products and services. If you decide that you do not want third party marketing information it will not affect your membership or activity within the Fire Brigades Union. You can tell us that you do not want to have any third party marketing at any time by contacting membership@fbu.org.uk and we will make sure that you are not sent further marketing material
