

THE FBU BLACK AND ETHNIC MINORITY MEMBERS' SECTION PRESENTS:

THE FBU IN CONVERSATION WITH PATRICK HUTCHINSON

In June, Patrick Hutchinson was photographed at a Black Lives Matter protest in London carrying a bloodied counter-protester to safety. The striking image quickly went viral and became a major talking point in the conversation about race and equality.

Join us to find out more from the man who put aside his personal views to rescue a far right protester and to hear Patrick's thoughts on the summer protests and opportunities for future change.
